Another sub-value from it is to be proud of the nation's culture, preserve the culture, sacrifice, eminent, achievement, patriotic, environmental care, obey the law, discipline, and respect the diversity of races and religions (Kemendikbud, 2017:8). According to Surono (2017) nationalism is crucial for a nation because it is the realization of patriotism. It leads the society to respect the value of humanity and tolerance. The character of nationalism needs to be implied from an early age into the young generation. Hopefully the young generation can prioritize common interest rather than personal interest.
